Annual Day- Rainbow of Emotions

"Feelings are just visitors, let them come and go." - Mooji

The pre-primary wing of DPS, GBN celebrated its annual day, "Rainbow of Emotions," on March 7th and 9th, 2025, bringing to life the vibrant and complex world of childhood feelings. The young performers touched the audience with a heartwarming story centred around a little girl named Simran and how various emotions influenced her life. Through engaging skits and musical performances, the children portrayed a spectrum of emotions, including happiness, sadness, boredom, anger, fear, disgust, and shyness. Each emotion was vividly depicted, showcasing the children's understanding and expressive abilities. The performances highlighted how these emotions, both big and small, shaped Simran's experiences and interactions with the world around her. Parents were treated to a delightful and insightful glimpse into the emotional lives of their children, leaving with a renewed appreciation for the importance of emotional intelligence in early childhood development. The event was a huge success, a testament to the hard work and dedication of the students, teachers, and staff.

Orientation Day

The Orientation Day at DPS, GBN welcomed new parents with warm smiles and vibrant decorations adorning the main hallways on March 17, 2025. The day started with the vibrant performances by our talented students, showcasing their skills and enthusiasm. Throughout the event, parents received valuable information about the School's curriculum, policies, and resources, helping them feel informed and prepared for the upcoming year. The highlight of the morning came when families broke into smaller groups to meet their children's class teachers, who had thoughtfully prepared personalized welcome notes and classroom tours. Many parents expressed appreciation for the opportunity to ask questions and build connections with staff members who would be guiding their children through this important year of growth and discovery. Overall, it was a wonderful day filled with excitement and anticipation for the School year ahead.
